PANAMA CITY | BOCAS DEL TORO

From the blue-green waters of the Pacific Ocean to the west and the tranquil waters of the Caribbean to the east, Panama is truly the narrow land that lies between the seas. Tour the Panama Canal and magnificent Miraflores Locks, the colonial town of Portobelo and spend five nights in Bocas del Toro.

Depart from Toronto to Panama City, home of the Panama Canal with its magnificent architecture, offering a view of the ships transiting through this 8th Wonder of the World including witnessing the incredible Miraflores Locks. Tour colonial Portobelo with a train ride aboard the famous Trans-Isthmian Railway. Find five colonial fortresses where cannons still point to the bay. Portobelo is also home to the Black Christ image, which according to a legend, has supernatural powers. Board your flight to Bocas del Toro. Upon arrival, welcome and transfer to Red Frog Beach Island Resort & Spa, set amid the enchanted Caribbean Archipelago of Bocas del Toro with incredible beaches and unique tours. Soak in the serene natural Panama island landscape. During your five night stay in a private villa, choose from several optional excursions including the Bastimentos Sky Zipline Canopy Tour (not included). Ascend to the top of the island's tropical forest, or choose to simply relax on the beach. Return to the airport for your flight to Panama City for one more night before your departure home the next day.

MANAGUA | GRANADA | MASAYA, MOMBACHO SAN JUAN DE ORIENTE | SAN JUAN DEL SUR

Nicaragua is known as the land of lakes and volcanoes, quickly gaining a reputation as the most intriguing new travel destination in Central America. Rich in colonial history, and beautiful, unspoiled biodiversity, this itinerary takes travellers from the summits of volcanoes to the relaxing beaches of Playa Ocotal which boasts the most beautiful sunsets in the world.

Arrive in Managua; take a boat ride around islands in Lake Nicaragua to see the volcanic evidence and influence of the area which were formed by the impressive Mombacho Volcano. Your sightseeing tour of Granada, by horse and carriage, takes you to the main plaza to see La Merced church, the famous Casa de Los Tres Mundos and the San Francisco convent. At the Cacao Museum, learn chocolate-making from fermented organic cacao beans, taking a sample of your own homemade chocolate. Visit Masaya Volcano National Park featuring the Masaya lagoon. See how locals work ceramics with their hands in San Juan de Oriente and stop for a beautiful sunset; rest or have a swim at Apoyo Lagoon. Take a 4x4 vehicle to the summit of the Mombacho Volcano, surrounded by exuberant vegetation and biodiversity. Spend four nights in your bungalow at Morgan's Rock Resort & Ecolodge, a 4,000-acre jungle hideaway boasting a mile-long picturesque sandy beach and private reserve and home to sea turtle conservation efforts. Relax at the beach or choose from many of the optional activities such as nature hikes, horseback riding, surfing and more. Return to Managua; fly home the next day.
