The country of Ecuador is bisected by the equator, sitting within both the Southern and Northern hemispheres. During this 11-day tour, witness a landscape dominated by volcanoes, thermal baths, Inca ruins and fascinating biodiversity in the Galapagos Islands to the West. See the beautiful colonial architecture of Quito and Cuenca and the variety of Ecuadorian handicrafts made by artisans and craftsman that aptly embody their rich traditions and culture.

Day 1 – Tuesday

TORONTO – GUAYAQUIL Depart from Toronto to Guayaquil via Panama. Upon arrival, welcome and transfer to your hotel. Wyndham Guayaquil, Deluxe ★★★★★

Day 2 – Wednesday

B/L

GUAYAQUIL – EL CAJAS NATIONAL PARK – CUENCA After breakfast, depart from Guayaquil for a dramatic ride, travelling from sea level up to 4,000m. Observe tropical plantations such as coffee, bananas and cacao before reaching the cloud forest and El Cajas National Park. In the afternoon, arrive in Cuenca, a quaint colonial city known for its handicrafts, pottery and the world-famous Panama Hat. Visit the Main Square, new Cathedral and the flower market. Visit either the Central Bank Museum or the Conceptas Religious Museum. Hotel Boutique Carvallo or similar

Day 3 – Thursday

CUENCA – INGAPIRCA – ALAUSÍ Breakfast. Pass through the southern highlands to arrive at Ingapirca Inca-Cañari, the most important Incan relic in Ecuador. This citadel was built in the 15th-century along an ancient route that connected Quito to Cuzco, Peru. Visit the archaeological site, then continue to Alausí, known for its unique railway engineering and spectacular scenery. Hostería la Quinta or similar

Day 4 – Friday

B/L

ALAUSÍ – DEVIL'S NOSE – BAÑOS Breakfast. In Alausí, we will take the spectacular bus and train ride through the Devil's Nose, a true feat in railway engineering of the early 20th-century. Continue north to Riobamba for a panoramic tour of the city's plazas and churches. Weather permitting, you may be able to see Chimborazo, the highest mountain in Ecuador. Enjoy a box lunch along the way. Continue to Baños, known for its hot springs and waterfalls. La Floresta Hotel or similar

Day 5 – Saturday

B/L

BAÑOS – ROSE PLANTATION – COTOPAXI – QUITO Breakfast. Head down into the Pastaza River canyon to the Avenue of Waterfalls surrounded by green, lush vegetation. Travel north to Cotopaxi National Park to admire the highest active snow capped volcano in the world. Visit Limpipungo Lagoon and a rose plantation. Continue to your hotel in Quito. Hotel Dann Carlton Quito, Standard ★★★★★

Day 6 – Sunday
