Day 5

NAVAGIO/SHIPWRECK BEACH Breakfast at your hotel. In 1980, a freightliner, the MV Panagiotis, found itself in difficult waters around Zakynthos Island on Navagio Beach during stormy weather and bad visibility. It has been rumored the ship was smuggling contraband such as cigarettes and wine. The ship was abandoned and still rests buried in the limestone gravel of the beach that now bears the nickname Shipwreck Beach or Smuggler's Cove. Today you will be picked up and transferred to the main harbour of Zante town to board a luxury speed boat for an unforgettable experience cruising to the north of the Island. Pass the residential area of Krioneri, the resort areas of Tsilivi, Alykanas and Alykes, up to Skinari, the most northern part of the island, where you can see the lighthouse. Head into Smuggler's Cove where the shipwreck can be seen, and a stop for a wonderful swim in the lovely blue waters. Those strong swimmers wanting to swim ashore can do so with the captain's permission, as there is no dock. The beach is not sandy and has small white pebbles. Smuggler's Cove is only accessible by the sea; docking and swimming only if weather permits. Next, sail to the famous Blue Caves discovered in 1897; its name comes from the colour of the water, a blend of aquamarine and turquoise.
